stay way from equity edge, they'll make you wait 3 days after passing your eval. because they wanna investigate to make sure you didn't violate any rules just to fail you for some nonsensical reason. save money and just go for a 5ers 5k or go to maven but go for the 2 step standard challenges.

I'm tired. Tried helping family and no one helped me when I needed it, nothing like getting hit by a car and all your emergency contacts going to voicemail.

This year was my second time trying to end this, and I couldn't even get that right. I'm 30 and there's nothing left for me, there's just an empty void in my chest that never goes away. I keep hoping that maybe tomorrow I won't wake up but that never happens. I'm just tired...

No need to feel sorry, it's just how it is.

Honestly, maybe I'd feel bad for my niece, but my family only speak/call when they need stuff. We're already apart

I get what you're trying to say but I think I've reached the end of my rope. There's nothing left to give. Thanks anyway
